AT THE PECK SCHOOL, YOUR CHILD THRIVES in a community shaped by timeless traditions—by handshakes and the Pledge of Allegiance, by “please” and “thank you,” and by tidy blazers and genuine school pride.

AND SHE ALSO EXPERIENCES TIMELY TRANSFORMATION, learning to swim the data streams of an information age, growing into an intrepid problem-solver, a design-thinker, a collaborator, and a maker.

HERE, HER CHARACTER TAKES ROOT as her mind takes flight—and she prepares for whatever tomorrow may bring while loving learning today.
OUR CAREFULLY CRAFTED K-8 PROGRAM enriches your child’s experience with both time-tested methods and time-honored traditions.

He competes in a decades-old bridge building competition, a custom that is as much a part of school lore as part of the curriculum.

He represents his team on field day, held annually for generations, which still thrills 21st-century tug-of-war wagers and race runners.

And he finds his place in a community where school culture still trumps pop culture, and where he can grow into his full potential without growing up too soon.

THE PECK SCHOOL HONORS the simple joys and customs of a gentler age—and provides a haven where your child can be a child, just a little longer.
THE PECK SCHOOL IS ALSO A POWERFUL PROVING GROUND, where your child becomes more, sooner.

An increasingly sophisticated thinker, building trebuchet prototypes while learning physics.

An emerging artist and athlete, studying Van Gogh in Kindergarten and the art of true sportsmanship in third grade.

A surprisingly wise decision-maker, mentoring a five-year-old at the age of ten.

WE SET OUR ACADEMIC AND ETHICAL BARS HIGH, and she learns to reach a little further than she thought she could. Our intentionally scaled, close-knit K-8 program is grounded in gentle kindness—but is also continually elevating and engaging.
FROM THE VERY START, your child finds his place, not just in his classroom or his grade, but as a treasured, vital part of the whole Peck family.

At morning drop-off, his eighth-grade buddy helps him out of your car and walks with him to our inviting, standalone Kindergarten building.

As a third-grader at lunch, he helps a first-grader with the straw for her milk while a fourth-grade friend serves them both mashed potatoes.

And by the time he reaches eighth grade, he has grown into a buddy—a leader, a helper, and an advocate for himself and for others.

OUR INTIMATE, CAREFULLY INTERLACED K–8 program provides your child with role models worth following—and equips him over time with the strength to lead.
YOUR CHILD CAN GO ANYWHERE from The Peck School.

To the most prestigious local high schools or to nationally recognized boarding schools.

To the most selective colleges and universities and into rewarding, meaningful careers.

And ultimately, to a deeply fulfilled, vibrantly lived, consequential life.

The best preparation for all her tomorrows is the right school for her today.
